Please note your box number or your name when transferring money. Please also note that the Green envelopes have been renumbered due to a decrease in people using them on a weekly basis. Some people have opted to use our banking facility while others give a once off yearly donation. If you did not get a box of envelopes and would like to receive one, please do not hesitate to contact Fiona or any of the Priests and we will arrange to have one delivered to you.

SAINT SARAN'S FEAST DAY - St. Saran, a seventh century Saint, travelled from Clonmacnoise and founded his Church on the bank of the River Brosna in Moystown Demesne. The original Gaelic name for this Church was "Tigh Saran" meaning the House of Saran. It is from this origin that the area of Tisaran in our Parish gets its present day name. This site is also the burial place of Fr. Stephen Daly, a native of the area, who was the first Capuchin Priest to serve in Ireland. St. Saran's Holy Well "Tobar Saran" is also to be found nearby in Moystown Demesne, not far from where the magnificent Moystown House once stood. These two sites, St. Saran's Church and St. Saran's Holy Well would have been major places of worship and pilgrimage in earlier Christian times. St. Saran died in 661 AD and his Feast Day falls on Wednesday 20th January.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL - Confidential helpline 087 9272877.

FERBANE TIDY TOWNS CHRISTMAS LIGHTS COMMITTEE - Would like to sincerely thank all the members of the community who contributed so generously to our annual collection. The lights will be left on until the end of January to keep up our spirits in solidarity with other communities during the pandemic.

SEEKING OLD PHOTOGRAPHS - Brosna Press are seeking old black and white photographs for inclusion in a forthcoming book of photographs from the early 1900s up to the 1960s. The photo can be of any subject, depicting life in West Offaly from the turn of the century onwards. Photographs will be carefully scanned and promptly returned to their owner. Ideally photographs to be supplied with captions. Call 090 6454327 or email diarmuid@brosnapress.ie for more information.

THE YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH

'Each of us can discover in Joseph the man who goes unnoticed, a daily, discreet and hidden presence, an intercessor, a support and a guide in times of trouble. He reminds us that those who appear hidden or in the shadows can play an incomparable role in the history of salvation'. (Pope Francis)

SECOND SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

'What are you looking for?'

'What are you looking for?' These are the first recorded words of Jesus in St. John's Gospel as He addresses His new disciples. It is the most fundamental question in life. One could say that the rest of the Gospel contains a series of responses to that question. For those seeking nourishment for the soul Jesus says 'I am the bread of life'. For the many longing for hope in the darkness that surrounds us, Jesus says 'I am the light of the world'. For those searching for a meaningful authentic way to live Jesus says 'I am the Way'. For all who crave truth in a world of 'fake news' Jesus says 'I am the Truth'. For the young and old of every nation who need reassurance in the face of death Jesus says 'I am the resurrection and the life'. Having posed the question, Jesus invites the disciples to 'come and see'. By spending time with Him, they not only came to see who He was, but they came to see who they could be. Having begun as seekers they moved to being followers and ended as disciples. If we want to go beneath the surface of our lives and find the answers to our deepest questions, we must spend time in His presence. He alone is the answer. If He is not the answer, there is no answer, but we must 'come and see'.
