SACRED HEART NOVENA Thursday 3rd – Friday 11th June 2021

Lord Jesus, you have said, 'Ask and you shall receive, seek and you shall find, knock and it shall be opened unto you', I come to you in faith and trust, in love and hope. Let me know your closeness to me, and your care for me and all who are dear to me. My intention for this Novena is dear to me, and I know that what is important to me is important to you. Hear my prayer (mention your intention); grant what I ask, and may I always trust that in all that happens in life, you will be close to me as my friend, guide and saviour. And so, Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in you. Amen.

Devotion to the Sacred Heart developed out of devotion to Holy Wounds of Christ, which has its origins in the 11th century. Then between the years (1673-75) a French nun of the Order of the Visitation of Holy Mary, St. Margaret Mary Alacoque experienced a series of apparitions in which Jesus requested to be honoured under the figure of His heart, symbol of God's 'boundless and passionate love for humankind'. During the 'great apparition' of 1675 Jesus asked that the Feast of the Sacred Heart be celebrated each year on the Friday following Corpus Christi in reparation for the ingratitude of people for the sacrifice He had made for them. In 1856 Pope Pius IX established the Feast of the Sacred Heart as obligatory for the whole church, to be celebrated on the Friday after the Octave of Corpus Christi. 'Devotion to the Most Sacred Heart is the extraordinary remedy for the extraordinary needs of our time'. Pope Pius XI, 1928.

FEAST OF THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

'Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the Living Heart of each of our parishes' (Pope St Paul VI). This feast is charged with happy memories of throngs of the faithful moving in devotional processions through streets festooned with papal flags, tricolours and all manner of bunting. At every door stood little altars, laden with statues, holy pictures and candles. The men and women walked proudly and reverently in their 'Sunday best', as they prayed the fifteen decades of the rosary and raised their voices with gusto to sing the ancient hymns, while the children from the First Holy Communion class scattered flower petals on the roadway, and all to salute the Real Presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. On this day we remember with gratitude all those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith who preserved this treasure for us through days of persecution and days of prosperity. It could be said that we got cheap what they bought dear. They have left us a monument more lasting than bronze. As we accept anew the responsibility of holding the gift in trust for the next generation we recall the words spoken by Pope Benedict to parents some years ago: 'Please go with your children to Church. This is not time lost. The day becomes more beautiful, the whole week becomes more beautiful when you go to Sunday Mass together'. 'The moment we separate our lives from the Eucharist, something breaks' (St. Teresa of Calcutta).
