10th SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

'It is the end of Satan'

The teaching of the Church, based on the Scriptures, leaves us in no doubt as to the existence of the Devil and the demonic realm. The Church further counsels against two equal and opposite errors in this regard. One is to disbelieve in his existence. The other is to believe and to feel an excessive and unhealthy interest in him. Pope Francis often refers to Satan as the 'Father of Lies', the one who sows seeds of division and disunity, confusion and conflict, the one who attacks us at our most vulnerable moments. In His earthly ministry Jesus Himself came face to face with the 'Powers of Darkness'. Satan it is who constantly tries to obstruct His plans to bring about the reign of the Kingdom. In the end, goodness trumps evil and it always will. There is only one God and Satan cannot go beyond the limits set by God. In the meantime, the struggle goes on. As children of the light, we are warriors on the frontline of this spiritual battle, which requires the utmost diligence. It is highly significant that the Lord's model prayer concludes with the petition: 'deliver us from the Evil One'.
